Student Enhancement Days

Preparing to meet the challenges of the examinations

December 2019

Business and Economics

Enhancement day to focus students on their preparations for the GCE Economics and Business exams. Top tips for effective revision, key concepts, and that all important exam technique.

We believe it is important for students to have time to take on board the lessons of the day, practise applying the skills and start focusing on the challenges in all aspects of their work and revision. These days are hands on with an emphasis on enhancing the students' exam performance and real world understanding of Business and Economics.

“I found the session very enjoyable and I’ve been able to use what I learnt in Business and in my other subjects.”

“It was really helpful. I feel much more confident with answering exam questions now.”

“I’ve always lost marks due to my exam technique, not my knowledge and understanding. This session showed me how to properly structure my answers. I feel much more confident now.” Sunmarke School, Dubai

“I have learnt how to answer questions, more specifically, without needing to write excessively so I can complete the exam in the time frame.”

“I learnt a lot about how to structure every question on the paper properly and how to write a great evaluation.”

Garden International School, Kuala Lumpur

ABOUT US

Helen Coupland-Smith

Helen was Head of Business and ICT in a large secondary school in the North of England before leaving to pursue her ambition of establishing Time2Resources. Helen’s experience and expertise in writing accessible, dynamic and imaginative resources has led to an impressive portfolio of end users including Google, Peter Jones Academy, Nelson Thorne, Pearsons, CIE, AAT and many more. Her experience as a principal and senior examiner, moderator and vetter across a number of leading exam boards makes Helen a very knowledgeable trainer and conference speaker. She is a well-respected author, INSET provider and conference speaker.

Carlo Mencattelli

Carlo has worked as Head of Business and Economics in a variety of state and independent schools. He has been a principal examiner and principal moderator and has examined for all major exam boards for over 20 years. His wealth of experience helps to provide real insight into understanding the requirements needed to access high grades in exams. Carlo has produced resources for several organisations and is a well-respected author, teacher trainer, and conference speaker.
